

Still believe the old bedtime story that life insurance only provides a death benefit?
It's time you read,

The Tale of the Jay with a Back-Up Plan

There once was a Jay we'll call Zach
A parachute he was sure not to lack.
Through thin or through thick,
In case he got sick,
His benefits would still have his back.

Fear of serious illness shouldn't prevent you from enjoying life – luckily there's Indexed Universal Life Insurance from National Life. It's permanent life insurance that provides more than a death benefit. It also offers features called living benefits* that let you access your death benefit, while living, in the event of a serious, qualifying illness.

* Living benefits are provided by no-additional premium accelerated benefit riders. Payment of Accelerated Benefits will reduce the Cash Value and Death Benefit otherwise payable under the policy. Receipt of Accelerated Benefits may be a taxable event, may affect your eligibility for public assistance programs, and may reduce or eliminate other policy and rider benefits. Please consult your personal tax advisor to determine the tax status of any benefits paid under this rider and with social service agencies concerning how receipt of such a payment will affect you. Riders are supplemental benefits that can be added to a life insurance policy and are not suitable unless you also have a need for life insurance. Riders are optional, may require additional premium and may not be available in all states or on all products. This is not a solicitation of any specific insurance policy.
