Life Insurance with Living Benefits

When solving life's financial puzzle, make sure you and your savings are protected in case you become seriously ill.

“How will I cover medical and living expenses?”

You probably think of life insurance as a tool to protect your loved ones if you pass away, but do you know that certain modern life insurance policies offer riders that can provide a financial resource if you experience a qualifying terminal, chronic or critical illness?

A stroke occurs every 40 seconds in the U.S.¹

6 in 10 Americans live with at least one chronic disease.²

It is estimated that 1.8 million new cases of cancer will be diagnosed in 2020.³

Approximately 530,000 bankruptcies are filed annually because of medical debt.⁴

Payment of Accelerated Benefits will reduce the Cash Value and Death Benefit otherwise payable under the policy. Receipt of Accelerated Benefits may be a taxable event and may affect your eligibility for public assistance programs. Please consult your personal tax advisor to determine the tax status of any benefits paid under this rider and with social service agencies concerning how receipt of such a payment will affect you.

Riders are supplemental benefits that can be added to a life insurance policy and are not suitable unless you also have a need for life insurance. Riders are optional, may require additional premium and may not be available in all states or on all products. This is not a solicitation of any specific insurance policy.
